I have enclosed two copies of a current photograph that clearly identifies me.

The back of one of the photographs has been signed by the medical practitioner signing the medical declaration, who certifies that it is a true likeness of me.

SIZE GUIDE FOR BOTH PHOTOGRAPHS

IMPORTANT: A standard passport photograph is preferred but if one is not available, the photograph submitted must meet the following standards:

- It must show you alone in the photograph.
- It must show a full frontal view of your head and shoulders against a plain contrasting background.
- It must be at least 43 mm x 54 mm (1 11/16 inches x 2 1/8 inches) and not more than 50 mm x 70 mm (2 inches x 2 3/4 inches), and have a view of your head that is at least 30 mm (1.375 inches) in length.
- It must reveal your face without sunglasses or any other obstructions. Facial hair is permitted, of course.

Note: This section does not need to be completed if a photograph has been provided within the last 5 years.

A3 Appointed Representative

This section is optional

You may appoint a representative to speak to Health Canada on your behalf. Health Canada will be authorized to exchange information about your case—including personal data and material contained in your medical records — with an appointed representative that you choose (for example, a family member or a friend).

Should you not provide this consent, Health Canada will communicate only with and through you.

You may withdraw the appointment of your representative at any time.

Appointed representative (optional):

I consent to allowing Health Canada to exchange personal and medical information about my case with my appointed representative.

E1-4 Notice to Applicants, Declaration and Signature

Please read carefully before using this product.

It is important for you to be aware of the following risks and recommendations about the product:

- Health Canada has not approved this marihuana product, or marihuana generally, as a drug under the Food and Drugs Act.
- The provision of marihuana for medical purposes does not constitute an opinion from Health Canada on the safety, effectiveness or quality of marihuana within the meaning given to those words under the Food and Drugs Act and the Food and Drug Regulations.
- The provision of marihuana does not constitute an opinion from Health Canada as to the justification for using marihuana for medical purposes, in general.
- The use of marihuana carries with it a number of potential health risks, including impaired immune system, interaction with other drugs, dysphoria, depleted energy, impaired short term memory, drug dependence and lung damage (particularly if consumed in the smoked form). If marihuana is to be used for medical purposes, it is recommended that it not be smoked. If you do use the product in smoked form, you accept the additional smoking-related risks.
- You should discuss with your medical practitioner the risks that may be associated with the use of this product, and marihuana generally.
- You should obtain directions for use of this product from your medical practitioner.
- Health Canada strongly recommends regular follow-up visits with your medical practitioner to verify that the benefits associated with the use of marihuana continue to outweigh the risks.
- It is possible that not all potential health risks associated with marihuana use, nor the extent of those risks, have been identified. This product therefore is being provided with the understanding that you acknowledge these facts, and that you voluntarily accept and assume the risks and dangers associated with the use of this product.
- The use of marihuana may have an effect on motor skills. Consequently, if you are consuming marihuana for medical purposes, you are advised not to operate a motor vehicle, handle machinery, or perform other risky activities while under the effects of marihuana. Health Canada recommends seeking the advice of your medical practitioner on this matter. Be advised that the use of marihuana while involved in such activities may constitute a number of offences under the Criminal Code, including dangerous operation of a motor vehicle, operating a motor vehicle while impaired, criminal negligence, and others.

Name:

- Health Canada strongly recommends that if you are pregnant, planning to get pregnant, or nursing, you should not consume marihuana.
- Given the nature of marihuana and the fact that the provision of marihuana is for your personal treatment needs, Health Canada recommends not consuming this controlled substance in a public place. Please take note that persons in charge of public or private establishments (e.g., bars and restaurants) can request that you not smoke marihuana on their premises, even if you have authority to possess marihuana for medical purposes. There may also be municipal bylaws that prevent smoking. In addition, others should not be exposed to second-hand marihuana smoke.

Health Canada will continue to support research into the safety and efficacy of marihuana when used for medical purposes, as well as research into alternative delivery mechanisms and methods of administration.

- i. I have read Section E1-4 of this document titled "Notice to Applicants, Declaration and Signature" and acknowledge that the benefits and risks associated with the use of the product are not fully understood. I understand that the use of the product may involve risks to health that are not known. Further, I understand that Health Canada is not giving any assurances, warranties or approvals with regard to the dried marihuana being provided.
- ii. I also understand that it is incumbent upon me to ensure that I do not, at any time, have more dried marihuana in my possession than I have been authorized to possess by Health Canada.
- iii. I attest that the information on this form is correct and complete.

E2-4 Notice to Applicants, Declaration and Signature

Please read carefully before using this product.

It is important for you to be aware of the following risks and recommendations about the product:

- Health Canada has not approved this marihuana product, or marihuana generally, as a drug under the Food and Drugs Act.
- The provision of marihuana for medical purposes does not constitute an opinion from Health Canada on the safety, effectiveness or quality of marihuana within the meaning given to those words under the Food and Drugs Act and the Food and Drug Regulations.
- The provision of marihuana does not constitute an opinion from Health Canada as to the justification for using marihuana for medical purposes, in general.
- The use of marihuana carries with it a number of potential health risks, including impaired immune system, interaction with other drugs, dysphoria, depleted energy, impaired short term memory, drug dependence and lung damage (particularly if consumed in the smoked form). If marihuana is to be used for medical purposes, it is recommended that it not be smoked. If you do use the product in smoked form, you accept the additional smoking-related risks.
- You should discuss with your medical practitioner the risks that may be associated with the use of this product, and marihuana generally.
- You should obtain directions for use of this product from your medical practitioner.
- Health Canada strongly recommends regular follow-up visits with your medical practitioner to verify that the benefits associated with the use of marihuana continue to outweigh the risks.
- It is possible that not all potential health risks associated with marihuana use, nor the extent of those risks, have been identified. This product therefore is being provided with the understanding that you acknowledge these facts, and that you voluntarily accept and assume the risks and dangers associated with the use of this product.

- The use of marihuana may have an effect on motor skills. Consequently, if you are consuming marihuana for medical purposes, you are advised not to operate a motor vehicle, handle machinery, or perform other risky activities while under the effects of marihuana. Health Canada recommends seeking the advice of your medical practitioner on this matter. Be advised that the use of marihuana while involved in such activities may constitute a number of offences under the Criminal Code, including dangerous operation of a motor vehicle, operating a motor vehicle while impaired, criminal negligence, and others.
- Health Canada strongly recommends that if you are pregnant, planning to get pregnant, or nursing, you should not consume marihuana.
- Given the nature of marihuana and the fact that the provision of marihuana is for your personal treatment needs, Health Canada recommends not consuming this controlled substance in a public place. Please take note that persons in charge of public or private establishments (e.g., bars and restaurants) can request that you not smoke marihuana on their premises, even if you have authority to possess marihuana for medical purposes.
